

MidWest Materials, a family owned and operated steel service center is seeking General Laborers to join our warehouse team at our facility located in Perry, Ohio.

This position entails numerous tasks within the plant to fulfill customer product requirements in a safe manner while maximizing productivity. This position is responsible for all job tasks to support the production, receiving, and shipping processes. Activities/ responsibilities may include but not limited to: assisting crane operator; weighing, banding and packaging material; operating a forklift; fabrication of wooden skids; cutting wood; and general housekeeping in the warehouse. All employees are required to follow all safety rules and procedures, and are responsible for proper care and use of all tools and equipment in their area.

Job Requirements:

- Prior steel industry or related manufacturing experience preferred (but not required)
- Ability to receive and follow instructions
- Team oriented with effective communication skills
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs.
- Ability to stand during shift
- Ability to work with hand and power tools
- Literacy a must
- High school diploma or GED preferred

Respond by August 31, 2015